

THANKS FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE!

Join any of these 2009 community projects

For information on these or new projects not in this listing, visit wenatcheemkdd.com

Alcoa/WATC Support Our Troops: Donate care packages to be sent to military personnel. Call 663-9241, or send to 6200 Malaga/Alcoa Hwy., Bldg. 34B, Malaga, WA 98828. WenSupportOurTroops@alcoa.com

Art on the Avenues: Clean sculptures. Meet at 10 am at the Performing Arts Center (PAC) fountain. Jeanette Marantos, 665-7689.

BBQ/Fundraiser: Order BBQ ribs or chicken by Oct. 20 and pick up on Oct 24 at Wenatchee High School to benefit Antioch Adoptions, a no-fee adoption agency which places orphaned foster kids in permanent homes. Free samples on Oct. 9 in front of KPQ Radio, 231 N. Wenatchee Ave., hosted by project chef Kent Getzin. Orders to Mike Magnotti, 699-1866. maddog@nwi.net

Beautification Projects in East Wenatchee: Help with variety of beautification projects in East Wenatchee. Bring gardening gloves and tools. Project locations: contact City of East Wenatchee Community Events, 886-6108. DCollings@east-wenatchee.com

Bikes for Kids: Donate bikes that need little or no repair; donate money for tubes and tires. Repair and giveaway 7 am to noon at Lee Elementary, 1455 Baker St., East Wenatchee. Early drop off OK. Contact Chuck Riibe (Cascade Elementary) to donate, get a bike, help at giveaway, 679-8780.

Bruce Hotel: Painting projects. Call prior to project date. Selma Diaz, 662-2485.

Catholic Family and Child Services & Volunteer Chore Services: Assist low-income elderly and disabled adults. Paint, clean, house repairs, yard work, many small group projects in Wenatchee, East Wenatchee & Cashmere. Mary Cook or Lisa Melvin, 662-6761. mcook@cfcs.net

Camp Fire's Zanika Lache, Lake Wenatchee: Clean up camp, take down tents, clear brush, sweep buildings, make repairs, and more, 8 am to 4 pm.; lunch provided. Bring gloves, brooms, shovels, axes, rakes, chainsaws. Register in advance. Camp is at 16400 Cedar Brae Rd, Lake Wenatchee. Theresa Samuelsen, 663-1609, or 548-8884. campfire@nwi.net

Cancer Care of NCW/Our House: Drop-off 9-1 pm. Need digital camera; original DVD movies; paper towels, toilet paper, Kleenex; laundry supplies (liquid bleach, fabric softener sheets); bottled water; crackers; individual cereal boxes, puddings, gelatins, juices; soups; frozen dinners; restaurant gift certificates. 1708 Castlerock Ave. Becky Elwell, 663-6964 or 663-3377. cancare@genext.net

Cache-cadian Clear Lake Clean-Up: Clean up 9 am @ parking lot at Clear Lake (Wenatchee Heights/Stemilt) with Cache-cadian Geocachers of Washington State Geocachers Association. Garbage bags supplied. Mike Lawson, 679-3599. the.navigators@gmail.com

Chelan-Douglas CASA: Create/fill Christmas stockings given to foster children during the holidays, or help restore a deck on Oct. 24. 431 Douglass St. Arlene Grover or Sue Baker, 662-7350. arlene@nwi.net; cdcasa.org

City of Wenatchee Projects: Various street and park improvement projects around Wenatchee. City will assist with materials, tools, etc. Allison Williams, 888-6216. awilliams@wenatcheeewa.gov

Community Concert: Enjoy the music at a fundraiser for Spurs and Spokes 4-H Club at 7:30 pm Sat., Oct. 24, at The Performing Arts Center "PAC". Tickets at the door. Featuring 165 musicians from Apollo Club, Applearies, Columbia Chorale & Village Voices. Kathy Gates, 663-1709.

Diaper Drive at Albertsons: Donate $$ and diapers of any kind for area families in need, 10-2 pm, in the parking lot of Albertsons. Junior Service League of Wenatchee will collect and donate to the YWCA for distribution. Becky Fevold, 670-0098. beckyboxleitner@gmail.com

Entiat River Restoration: Plant trees and shrubs and build fence along Entiat River with Chelan-Douglas Lane Trust. Neal Hedges, 667-9708, for location and details. neal@cdlandtrust.org

1st Choice Pregnancy Care Center: Donate new/almost new maternity clothes, layettes, knitted baby booties. Karen Krehbiel, 662-0652.

Food Bank Food Drive (NCW Association of Realtors): Drop off non-perishable food for local food banks from 9 am to 2 pm at Grocery Outlet, 1616 N. Wenatchee Ave., and meet Wenatchee Wild players. Buy $10 tickets for raffle to win a private suite for 20 and food at a Wenatchee Wild game. Raffle tickets also sold at Wild games and at the NCW Realtors office, 663-1211. Jan Widener, 665-9200, 670-2444. jan@lauramounter.com

Free Yard Sale: Free giveaway to the public of clothing, appliances, furniture. 8 am to 4 pm. Foothills Foursquare Church, 315 S. Mission St. Denise Langois, 663-8761. Donations also welcome in advance.

Gathering Place for CASA Volunteers: Restore an outside deck/patio for CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) for abused and neglected children. Sue Baker, 662-7350. cdcasa@nwi.net

Habitat for Humanity: Projects available. In advance, call Natalie, 663-1889. habitat@nwi.net; wenatcheehfh.org

Haven of Hope: Remove flooring; donate laundry, paper products & supplies. Teria Kelley, 664-6866. teria@hospitalityhouseofwenatchee.org

Josh Putnam Memorial Sculpture/Scholarship Fund: Donate $$ at Cashmere Valley Bank fund in memory of kindergarten teacher Josh Putnam. Questions: Becky Smith, Lee Elementary, East Wenatchee, 884-1497.

Methow Park, Kiwanis: Clean up Wenatchee's Methow Park and paint soccer goals with local Kiwanis clubs. Tom Irvin, 679-7644.

Mustard Seed Neighborhood Center: Yard work and painting, 9 am to 1 pm. Snacks provided. Bring paintbrushes, pruners, rakes, shovels and gloves. Merry Roy, 884-2874. merryroy@yahoo.com

Riverview Kiwanis: Donate winter coats, mittens, hats and warm items for needy families from 8-11 am at Washington Park, Wenatchee. Margie Wilson, 888-3209.

Serve Wenatchee Valley ServeFest: Projects serving elderly/handicapped families in Wenatchee and East Wenatchee. Bob Shepherd, 663-4673.

Share-A-Bear: Donate teddy bears and names of people who would like them for delivery to "forgotten" age groups. Drop off anytime at 1035 Ninth St. Faith Godbey, 663-3701. faithgodbey@peoplepc.com

Ski Swap Benefit Sale: Largest ski swap in NCW on Saturday, Oct. 24, 8 am to 2 pm at Orchard Middle School, 1024 Orchard St. Benefits Orchard Middle School ASB and Mission Ridge Ski Team. Check ski/snowboard items to sell Friday, Oct. 23, 5-8 pm. Julie Robinson, 667-1275/860-0955, therobinson5@msn.com

Teachers Make A Difference #8: Call with your story about a teacher who has made a difference in your life to be included in a book. Orders for books will be taken; proceeds go toward scholarships. Eldene Wall, 665-2629. eldene@ncesd.org

Trusting Spirit Horse Rescue: Build fences and sheds; weed & clean up; brush and care of horses all day. Claudia Trapp, 679-6555. [trustingspirithorse Rescue.com](http://www.trustingspirithorse Rescue.com)

Washington State Music Teachers Association: Piano students across Washington state give concerts at retirement homes. Teri Rappe, 663-4121.

Wenatchee Central Lions: White Cane Day on Friday, Oct. 23. Donate money and eyeglasses to Lions' Sight and Hearing Foundation all day at Albertsons, Fred Meyer, Starbucks, U.S. Post Office and Wal-mart. Pam Baker, 663-3337.

Wenatchee Community Center: Work projects beginning at 10 am. David Gerlach, 888-1561.

Wenatchee Foothills Trail Project: Replant and restore Wenatchee Foothills trails with hand tools with Chelan-Douglas Land Trust. RSVP Patrick Walker, 667-9708. patrick@cdlandtrust.org

Wenatchee Area Rotary Clubs: Projects at Rotary Park on Western Avenue and at Lake Wenatchee YMCA Camp. Richard Riggs, 663-1494.

Wenatchee Valley Humane Society: Donate aluminum cans, dog food, puppy chow, kitten food, cat litter, and animal treats & toys, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Christi Maroney, 662-9577. cmaroney@wenatcheehumane.org

Women's Resource Center: Donate perishable and non-perishable food items, as well as blankets and sleeping bags, 10 am to 4 pm, 20 Adams St. ("The Blue House"), Tanya Bradford, 662-0121. tanya_bradford2000@yahoo.com